

My Family Tree

To make a family tree, write your name and draw a picture of you on the bottom of the tree, add your brothers and sisters names. Work your way up the tree with your parents and grandparents. Write down where they were born and what country they come from. You can add more branches to the tree as needed. This is a fun activity to do together as a family.

