International Mother Language Day

This celebration will be a heart-warming tapestry of unity, bringing together people from all walks of life to embrace and share their unique cultural stories through art, music, and community. Imagine the laughter of children, the vibrant sounds of different languages spoken side by side, the aroma of diverse cuisines, and the unbreakable bonds of a community that honours each other's heritage. This day is more than a celebration; it is a promise to remember where we come from and to pass on the magic of our languages to future generations.

Host your next event at Penrose Place!

Penrose Place is a new flexible outdoor activation space to support community events and markets.

wyndham.vic.gov.au/penrose-place

Penrose Place is a new purpose-built event space, designed to bring the community together through markets, food truck events, festivals, and more.

This transformed space is ready to host a wide range of events and we're looking for market and event organisers to bring it to life.

The site offers convenient access to water and power, ambient lighting and re-purposed containers for alfresco seating and a stage for performances.

Penrose Place Open Day
42 Wickford Road, Tarneit

Friday 28 February
4pm-6pm
Site tours, food trucks and music

Come on down!
